

Prince William Prepares For War!!

Brentsville Civil War Weekend

Saturday, April 18, 2009, 10am – 9pm

FREE!!!

In April of 1861, Prince William County citizens met in Brentsville and made the fateful decision to raise troops to fight the Union. Come see infantry and cavalry troops muster, drill and train to become professional soldiers. Also see a large Civil War Medical and Mourning Display of original artifacts.

In the evening, see the soldiers in the camps as they prepare for an upcoming battle. Witness officers making plans in the Courthouse to march to Bull Run. At the Haislip House, experience the troubles families dealt with in their homes as loved ones go off to war.

Brentsville Courthouse Historic Centre
12229 Bristow Rd.
Bristow, VA 20136
703-365-7895

Prince William County
Department of Public Works – Historic Preservation Division
17674 Main St., Dumfries, VA 22026
703-792-4754
www.pwcgov.org/brentsville

